ATLANTIC NORTHEAST DISTRICT
CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN

Volume 56 Issue 2

March/April 2022

A Note for You ...

Greetings Sisters and Brothers in Christ!

On April 17 we celebrate our Risen Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and the true, transformed, abundant life He has given to us. Of course, it's everyday, not just one Sunday, as we are called to live in Him and use this gift of life to be His hands and feet in the world.

What I love to explore is how Jesus' disciples grew deeper in their walk with Him—from their call, to the confusion of Jesus' death, to finally the culmination of the Resurrection and empowerment by the Holy Spirit. Jesus called them and created the space for them to learn and live into that call, in all their questions, mistakes, and accomplishments by His grace. They were human beings just like you and me, and how grateful I am that they stepped out in faith to lead the early church, women and men alike.

We have the example of our Master to follow, and so I ask, how are we doing as the church to encourage those within the Body to listen for and accept God's call to serve as our future ministers? What are ways you can create a culture of calling within your congregation? One step is for each of us to pay attention to the gifts we see in others, as unrefined and perhaps even unaware they may be. As Jesus taught and loved and shaped His disciples, so too we are to sharpen one another and allow the space for our future ministers to take their first steps on that journey.

When I was in high school, my pastor wrote me a letter encouraging me to enter into the ministry, naming the gifts he saw in me to do that. That letter was a kind of culmination of my years growing up in the church, taught and shaped and given the grace to explore what being a follower of Christ really is. I am so grateful for it all.

What are ways you can create a culture of calling within your congregation? How are you nurturing and encouraging the gifts you see in others? I encourage all of us to start that conversation today as we stay open to how God will lead us into tomorrow.

Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid; from now on you will fish for people." So they pulled their boats up on shore, left everything and followed him. -Luke 5:10-11

Blessings.

ANE DISTRICT CONFERENCE • OCTOBER 7 & 8, 2022

To receive a wedding invitation brings a moment a choice. When we receive it, in a relatively short period of time, we will make a decision of whether or not we will attend. When we decide to attend, we send the RSVP card back, mark the date on our calendar, and then go about our daily routines without giving too much thought until the date of the ceremony draws near.

It seems that outlook might be one of the vulnerabilities we face when it comes to District Conference. Our respective churches elect us as delegates; we make sure that we have the date on the calendar. Then, we give little thought to the conference until close to the date. For those who aren't delegates, maybe we give little thought until after the conference when the delegates representing our churches give their reports.

District Conference, however, is not designed to be an isolated event with no connection to District ministries and discussions that have occurred throughout the year. One of the most helpful ways a person can prepare is to keep oneself informed, keep up with information coming to the churches about the District and District Conference.

When thinking about the theme for this year's conference, a theme was chosen not just for the weekend of conference, but for us as a District to live into throughout the year. The theme is: "Ignited to be church under unrelenting pressure." It is based on Ephesians 4:15-16. We are called to speak the truth in love and so do life together that the body, the church, builds itself up in love.

The word "Ignited" speaks to the work of the Holy Spirit who ignites the fire in the gathered body to be like Jesus. The phrase "under unrelenting pressure" speaks to the current cultural context. The cultural narrative that we experience on how to relate to those who think differently when it comes to political and social agendas appears to be invading the church.

John Hostetter,
Moderator

David French in an article, "Lost Friendships Break Hearts and Nations" coined a word that has challenged me, "factional friendships." He uses that phrase to describe a trend in which our friendships are only or primarily made up of those who view things the same as I do. The attitude behind this trend is "You're either with us or you're against us." If the trend becomes pervasive in the church, we will be unable to live into our calling of building the body up in love. We will be unable to give our full attention when listening. Our strong feelings about something will take over and we will fail to speak respectfully, truthfully, clearly and timely in love. Our witness as churches will lack credibility.

A key District ministry focus this year is "The Way Forward" (which you will continue to hear about). If we, as District churches are going to live into this calling we will need to resist the cultural narrative of "factional friendships" and live into our calling of building one another up in love. I invite you to reflect on your relationships. Are they primarily factional, or are your friendships made up of individuals with diverse views on the social and political issues of our day? Let's venture together to grow-up into our head, Jesus Christ, so we as the body may build ourselves up in love.

<sup>15</sup> Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. <sup>16</sup> From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.

~Ephesians 4:15-16

Update:

Little Swatara FEED THEM Ministry

"Feed them."

What a great command from our Lord and Savior. For those of us who use food as their love language it's an easy one. We have done three Feed Them events over the past months with each one feeding more families. We started with hot dogs, meatballs and then vegetable soup and cornbread. The families are just grateful beyond words. The thanks from our families in attendance is overwhelming and humbling.

The first two months we fed around 220, having planned for 240. So, for November we planned the same for soup to feed 240. But God had other plans. We reached out to the council of churches, our fellow believers, and our home church and the soup came through in abundance! I was planning for 60 quarts of soup minimum and we had 124! I kept saying "Lord what will we do with all this soup?" Ha, ha, ha, oh ye of little faith. I your Father already know how much you will need. Cornbread was also in abundance with 314 pieces cut and wrapped.

But the need was great. We handed out ALL of the cornbread running short for the last few families and gave all but 12 quarts of soup away. GOD Is Good, Amen.

We appreciate all help and food donations. We look forward to seeing what God has planned for the future events.

A new Spiritual Direction Training cohort begins in March 2022

Kairos Spiritual Direction Training (SDT) is a contemplative program that teaches the art and practice of spiritual direction – deep listening, walking alongside others, and recognizing God in your own life and the lives around you. Students are encouraged to practice spiritual kinship with those on the margins who may not normally have the opportunity or means to participate in spiritual direction.

SDT is designed not only for spiritual directors, but for all those who offer spiritual care and companionship. Training in spiritual companionship provides effective tools for interpersonal relationships, especially when working with those different than yourself.

Develop your personal and professional skills of deep listening and learn to incorporate spirituality into your understanding of yourself and those around you. SDT is rooted in the life and teachings of Jesus and informed by Ignatian spirituality and the wisdom tradition. Contemplative spirituality is compatible with a spectrum of denominational and theological positions including those who claim no tradition.
