

Angela Carr is a bi-vocational pastor in Virginia has been serving the congregation at Laurel Branch in Floyd County for the past 19 years as their part-time minister. She works full-time for Roanoke City Public Schools as the Teacher Licensure Coordinator and has 30 years of experience in higher and K-12 education. Additionally, Pastor Angela serves the denomination as a Circuit Rider in the Office of Ministry's Part-Time Pastor, Full-Time Church program and enjoys serving other Church of the Brethren multi-vocational pastors. She and her husband Greg (36 years), enjoy life on the farm surrounded by lots of cows, sheep, and hard work and family.